

The J. Frank and Joan Uhl Pierce Transcultural Nursing Award

An award of $1,000.00 will be made to a selected nurse who reflects the knowledge and understanding of the requirement for all nurses to promote and incorporate cultural competent care into practice in any health care setting.

In order to be eligible for this award, the applicant will:

1. Show evidence of current active membership of the TCN Society
2. Show evidence of current licensure as a Registered Nurse (or its international equivalent).
3. Submit a paper that describes the components of cultural competent care and how this has been integrated successfully into practice in any given health care setting.
4. Present the paper at a regional or national TCNS conference within two years of receiving the award.

OR

5. Provide evidence-based findings of the success of integrating cultural competent care and report these data as a paper for submission and review for publication by the Journal of Transcultural Nursing.

Format Information:

For the Journal article, please follow the “Manuscript Submission Information for Authors” found on the TCNS Web Page under the Journal of Transcultural Nursing.

For the paper please follow these instructions:

Papers should be prepared in accordance with the guidelines set forth in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th edition. Manuscripts, including abstracts and references, should be double-spaced, using 12 font type, left justified margins, and one inch margins on all sides. The manuscript title page should include author(s) name(s) and complete contact information. A short heading and page number should be typed on each page. Manuscripts should not exceed 17 pages, excluding references, tables and figures. Each table, figure, graph etc. should have its relative placement noted within the text. Tables should be typed one to a page with any notes/legends typed on the same page. Tables should be numbered, titled, typed double-spaced, tab delineated, and without use of lines. Label each figure with its number and legend. All tables, figures, graphs and drawings should follow the reference list, not placed within the text.
